Foreword

In 1939, the first yearbook was published by the Vocational High School for Girls. Today as through the years another First Lady is presented.

Two milestones in Whitney history are the twenty-fifth volume of First Lady and the graduation of the Class of 1966. Two years, 1944 and 1945, were missed during World War II.

This anniversary of First Lady marks a quarter of a century of hard work and some achievement.

Graduation is the other important event here commemorated. This day we leave friends and teachers to go into the world and establish our own lives.

These may be our greatest days so cherish them.

To Kathy
 you are a very sweet girl with a nice personality. I have enjoyed knowing you.
 Love
 6/6/66
 (Mrs. Richard Ballman)

Kathy,
 A sweet girl
 with a personality to match. Good Luck in the future.
 God Bless

Dedication

A spark to create a fire within,

an inspiration to strive for the best,
a friend to understand,
a guide to lead in the right direction—
is Alvin C. Bippus.

It is hard to believe that each honored senior, cheery junior, wondering sophomore is an individual; but with Mr. Bippus's concern for the Whitney family, we truly are individuals.

This is why the Class of 1966 dedicates our yearbook to him.

Mr. Alvin C. Bippus

MR. WALTER ARDNER
Acting Principal

Sincere congratulations on the twenty-fifth edition of the yearbook, First Lady. The editors and staffs of preceding annuals have done excellent work in preserving cherished highlights of yesteryears at Whitney. The composition of the 1966 book upholds the traditions of those of the past. This volume will be treasured now and even more in the future.

Those in the graduating class have acquired the necessary skills in their chosen vocations to begin adult lives as useful members in a competitive society. Your aims and ambitions will determine the degrees of your future success. Whitney trained graduates have proved themselves to be worthy and well qualified for business and industry. Keep this fine heritage.

May health, happiness, and success be yours.

It was a beautiful day of Indian Summer. The sun was warm and lazy. Leaves of red and gold hung on the trees. I drove down the highway, watching the beauty around me, scarcely aware of the flashing milestones.

As I drove on, the numbers became more noticeable, began to take on interest. One hundred eighty-seven; one hundred eighty-six; eighty-five; —four! What did they measure? Where did they start? Where did they end? What do milestones mean?

I thought of home, school, work, all starting places. I thought of the numbers going down, down, as I neared my destination. I thought how fortunate I was that skillful people engineered the road, marking so clearly the way.

Then I knew what the milestones meant. Others have charted the course for me to follow safely. I can travel the highway because others have gone before me. I can choose my destination because of others.

All of us who are part of Whitney travel together, depending on each other, toward our goals. We rejoice together as we pass each new milestone.

—Susannah West

Twenty five years—twenty five First Ladies telling the accomplishments, growth, successes of Whitney as graduates make their contributions to the community and add honor to their alma mater. Graduation Day 1966 marks the passing of your first milestone, preparation. Where will 1991 find you? Oliver Wendell Holmes said, "The great thing in the world is not so much where we stand, as in what direction we are moving." Best wishes for happiness.

Vocational Clubs of America Pledge

Upon my honor, I pledge to endeavor to prepare myself by diligent study and ardent practice to become a worker whose services will be recognized and respected to by employer, fellow workers, and the community. I shall, through honesty and fair play, respect the rights of my employer, my instructor, my fellowmen. I pledge myself to honor and respect my vocation in such a way as to bring good repute to myself. My expectations of reward shall be based upon the solid foundation of service. I shall spare no effort in upholding the ideals of my school and the Vocational Clubs of America.

Kat (Kat),

Boy, can I say some things! But I know some nice people will read this book, so I'll keep it to a soft shout. Do you remember all the days before Terry? Yeah, I guess you do. Well, anyway, if Terry hadn't come into your life, none of this would be the same. Our little four-some have really had some swinging times together and will probably have a lot more. When I tell everybody I've only known you for a year, they don't believe me. Well, a friendship like ours only comes "once in a lifetime". (Chuck, chuck) I hope all of our plans for the future turn out the way we want them to. Speaking of things turning out, mine aren't. I think our brooms have something going. They sure are going away a lot. I hope they don't do anything we wouldn't do. (No, that's too much of a wide circle) I mean, wellllll. I'm lost. I get sick and tired of our brooms sneaking off like they are. I hope they settle up and get this over with. Well, enough about that. When we first met, it was at J.A. Penzance? (How could I forget!!!" she exclaimed) All right, that's enough! Anyway, remember all the kids in our class: Steve, Craig (Ha Ha), etc. I didn't seem as fun this year as it was last year. I don't see why. (Chuck, chuck) I don't think I'll join next year. I'll probably be too busy anyhow. Well, I'm determined to fill in two pages, so I'll start on my favorite subject - you guessed it - yes - no - Larry. (Ha Ha). We're making plans for marriage. Nothing definite, you understand (I hope).
